Vice-President (Advancement)

Melbourne, Australia

DEAKIN
UNIVERSITY AUSTRALIA

An opportunity to establish and achieve your vision.

Deakin University has developed a reputation as one of the emerging success stories in Australian higher education. One of the largest and fastest growing universities in Australia, it has more than 39,000 students and 3,000 staff. As part of its next stage of growth and development, Deakin is seeking its first Vice-President (Advancement) to set the course and to build and strengthen relationships with stakeholders including donors, alumni, friends, government, foundations, the corporate sector and the University's communities more broadly.

Reporting directly to the Vice-Chancellor, the Vice-President (Advancement) will be a member of the University's Executive and will play a key role in the planning and execution of its strategic direction.

The position will provide leadership, strategy and policy direction across all areas of the portfolio including Development, Sponsorship, Alumni Relations, Government and Media Relations, Corporate Events Management and Protocols, Deakin's Art Collection and Galleries, and Community Relations associated with Deakin's multiple campuses.

The Vice-President (Advancement) will also conceive and execute fundraising plans as well as personally manage a portfolio of prospects towards ensuring substantial philanthropic investment that supports the University's key priorities.

This exciting opportunity will suit a seasoned, results-focused and values-driven professional with an outstanding record in building successful, enduring internal and external relationships. Membership of the Fundraising Institute of Australia or equivalent internationally as well as professional CFRE (Certified Fund Raising Executive) accreditation would be desirable.

APPLICATIONS WILL BE REVIEWED ON AN ON-GOING BASIS

UP TO THE 02nd MARCH 2012.
