CFRE International Former Chairpersons ......................... 63
The word “passion” is used frequently by many fundraisers. We are passionate about the communities we live in, the causes we support, our donors, and our profession. One of my passions is CFRE because the credential helps our profession get the recognition it deserves while providing our sector with highly knowledgeable fundraising professionals. As such, it has been an honour to serve on the CFRE Board in various capacities over the past six years. My term as Chair concluded at the end of 2017, and I look back with satisfaction on the numerous accomplishments the board and staff have made together during that time.

We’ve continued to increase access to the CFRE exam in recent years. One major victory was partnering with PearsonVUE testing centres to make the CFRE exam available in 180 countries, putting the CFRE within reach of fundraising professionals everywhere. To help spread the word about the CFRE credential, we grew our number of participating organisations to 25 and now have at least one partner organisation on each of six continents. Online, we continue to make an impression and have over 11,000 visits per month to our website.

We launched our practice exam in 2017. As an online tool to boost confidence for those taking the CFRE exam, it has proven valuable, with more than 400 people using it to help prepare.

At the end of 2017, there were over 6,200 CFREs. There are numerous opportunities for the number of CFRE certificants to grow, and I hope that those of you who are seasoned CFREs will join me in encouraging colleagues and contacts to consider becoming a CFRE, especially those early in their careers.

I was asked today about my CFRE Board experience. I could honestly say that it was the best board and a highlight of my career. The board and committee members I served with were exceptionally skilled and dedicated to CFRE. Discussions were respectful, thoughtful, and frank. Every decision was made with the aim to support fundraisers through certification and strengthen our profession. It was a privilege to serve on the CFRE Board, and I want to thank my fellow board members for making the experience memorable and rewarding.

I also want to thank CFRE President and CEO Eva Aldrich and her team. Their support and dedication are helping fundraising professionals do the best job they can so their organisations continue shaping the world for the better.

Looking to the future, I wish Heather McGinness, CNM, CFRE, all the best as she steps into the role of CFRE International Chair. I have no doubt that under her guidance CFRE will continue to grow its footprint while remaining a vocal advocate for fundraising executives in every corner of the world.

2017 Advisory Council

Established in 2007, the Advisory Council’s purpose is to actively engage Participating Organisations and key stakeholders in discussion on issues facing CFRE International and the fundraising profession. Advice and guidance from the Advisory Council assists the CFRE International Board of Directors and staff in addressing issues affecting the profession that may impact the credential; identifying services that CFRE International might provide; and disseminating timely information about CFRE International and the CFRE credential.

Advisory Council members are appointed by each Participating Organisation and serve as advocates for CFRE International in the broader fundraising community and provide input to help CFRE International develop appropriate programmes and services that best meet the needs of candidates and certificants. The Advisory Council was on hiatus in 2017 to facilitate its restructuring.

Accreditation

In July 2017, the American National Standards Institute accredited the Certified Fund Raising Executive (CFRE) certification under the ANSI/ISO/IEC 17024 standard for personnel certification programmes. This made the CFRE® credential the world’s only accredited certification for philanthropic fundraising professionals.

ANSI accreditation is the hallmark of a rigorous, high-quality certification programme. ANSI accreditation enhances the stature of the CFRE credential because it is recognised internationally for ensuring the consistency and integrity of certification bodies and credentials. The ISO in ANSI/ISO/IEC stands for International Organization for Standardization, a worldwide federation of national standards bodies from 163 countries.

Accreditation by ANSI means that the CFRE credential’s global significance is recognised by other worldwide accrediting bodies with which ANSI has established multilateral recognition agreements, including members of the Pacific Accreditation Cooperation.

Accreditation of the CFRE programme under ANSI/ISO/IEC 17024 confers independent, widely respected international validation of both the CFRE programme and credential, verifying the competence, credibility, and ethical commitment of an increasingly mobile and global workforce of CFRE-certified fundraising professionals.

“Becoming a CFRE was not easy, but just the sheer journey of studying for it was worth it. It allowed me to combine my practical knowledge with fundamentals and research-based studies. It has resulted in me being a more confident and effective fundraiser.”

Validity Tables

During 2017, a total of 837 new candidates applied to the CFRE programme and 883 examinations were administered at numerous computer-based testing (CBT) locations worldwide. A total of 690 individuals were granted initial certification as a Certified Fund Raising Executive (CFRE), bringing the total number of current CFRE certificants to 6,676 during the year.

The 2017 exam form reflected a Test Content Outline based on the international Job Analysis Survey conducted in 2014/2015 in ten countries—Australia, Brazil, Canada, Germany, India, Japan, New Zealand, South Africa, the United Kingdom (UK), and the United States (U.S.). The following statistics are for the 2017 form of the CFRE exam.

Data Note: There was only one CFRE Global Exam form administered to candidates for CFRE certification in 2017.

“Especially in emerging NGO markets like South America, I think it is important that professional fundraisers show there is a need to demonstrate knowledge of fundraising in order to become a paid fundraiser. That’s why I became a CFRE two years ago. It gives me the opportunity to show people around me how serious I take the profession of fundraising.”

Ramses Man, CFRE
Suriname
CFRE International assesses the knowledge, skills and competencies of the fundraising profession as identified in a rigorous international Job Analysis study. This research informs the Test Content Outline, on which the exam is based.

Best practice in the certification profession requires that a new Job Analysis be performed every five to seven years. In 2014/2015, CFRE completed its most recent Job Analysis study, which was reflected in the 2017 exam form.

CFRE uses a cadre of globally diverse, trained and currently certified fundraising professionals to help develop, vet and approve the CFRE examination. In addition, the passing standard is set by a panel of fundraising professionals.

Every draft test question must be linked to a topic area found on the Test Content Outline and referenced to at least one source on the CFRE Resource Reading List before it will be reviewed.

In 2017 CFRE International continued to experience a healthy recertification rate well above the industry average rate for voluntary certification programs.

“I was motivated to become a CFRE by seeing all of the amazing industry leaders with their designation. As a young professional, I knew that obtaining my CFRE was my first big stride in demonstrating my proficiency in the field and making advances in my career, which I saw within the first month of obtaining my designation.”

Jesse Dees, CFRE
Collingwood, ON Canada
Total Scored Items on the Exam: The 2017 CFRE exam consisted of 200 questions; of the 200 questions, 175 were scored and 25 were pre-test questions that were being evaluated for possible inclusion on the exam at a later date. Information about how candidates perform on pre-test questions is collected without affecting the candidate’s score.

Scaled Score: Raw number-correct scores for the CFRE exam are converted to scaled scores with a consistent pass mark (i.e., 500) for ease of interpretation and comparability across test windows. This means that the same raw number-correct score could correspond to different scaled scores depending on the difficulty of the exam form. For example, two candidates who took different exam forms and had the same raw score of 70 might have different scaled scores. The candidate who took the easier form would likely have a lower scaled score than the candidate who took the more difficult form even though their raw scores are the same. The scaled scores of the CFRE exam range from 200 to 800. The scaled score 800 in the CFRE exam represents a perfect score (i.e., number-correct score of 175).

Passing Scaled Score: This is the score a candidate must receive in order to pass the CFRE examination. The passing scaled score for the CFRE exam is consistently set to 500. This means that a scaled score is a conversion of different number-correct scores depending on exam difficulties. The number of questions that must be answered correctly is determined by evaluating the overall difficulty level of the exam. The more difficult the exam, the fewer questions a candidate would have to answer correctly in order to be assessed as having mastered the content. CFRE International uses criterion-referenced scoring. That is, the passing standard is determined by a panel of experts during a standard setting workshop applying Modified Angoff Method and is independent of what group of people a candidate tests with. CFRE International does not score its exam on a “curve” and also does not predetermine the number of people it will certify in a given year—performance on the exam is up to the candidate.

Mean Scaled Score: This is the average score of all candidates who took the exam during 2017. The overall mean scaled score for all candidates in 2017 was 561.43. The appropriateness (or consistency) of exam difficulty is understood by looking at the scaled score average. The averages of scaled scores for 2016 and 2017 respectively were 559.99 and 561.43 and show strong consistency of exam difficulty.

Range of Scores: The theoretical range for the CFRE exam scaled score (200 – 800) is considered typical for a professional certification programme. In 2017 the observed minimum and the maximum scores were 200 and 752, respectively. These outliers did not affect appropriateness and consistency of the exam difficulty as the scaled score averages do not suggest a noticeable difference in overall candidate performance.

Cronbach’s α Reliability Coefficient: It indicates the internal consistency of the exam. The theoretical range of coefficient alpha is from 0 to 1, with larger numbers suggesting that similar results would be observed if the exam is given to the same examinee over multiple occasions. Reliability coefficient is generally affected by the test length. For a long exam

(i.e., more than 100 scored items) such as the CFRE exam, a reliability of 0.8 is expected. The observed reliability coefficient of the 2017 CFRE exam was 0.88, which was satisfactory and unchanged from 2016.

Standard Error of Measurement: The standard error of measurement yields an estimate of the variability of errors associated with a CFRE test score. A large standard error indicates that a significant amount of error exists in the test score. The small standard error results suggest that the 2017 CFRE exam was a precise measure of baseline knowledge in the field of fundraising at the five-year level.

Content Area Performance: The CFRE examination administered during 2017 was broken down into six major content areas of fundraising: Current and Prospective Donor Research; Securing the Gift; Relationship Building; Volunteer Involvement; Leadership and Management; and Ethics, Accountability, and Professionalism. Candidate performance across those content areas is monitored.

The CFRE candidate pool is involved with a great diversity of fundraising; it is reasonable to expect that not all candidates are masters of every type of fundraising activity. In 2017, candidates scored highest in the domain of Ethics, Accountability, and Professionalism. The lowest performance domain was Current and Prospective Donor Research. This may reflect a lack of access to available education for fundraising professionals in this domain though overall performance was still at acceptable levels.

Since its beginning as an independent organisation in 2001, CFRE International has become self-sustaining and continues to experience steady increases in the overall number of CFRE certificants worldwide.

In 2017 CFRE International derived 81.8% of its revenue from candidate fees for both initial certification and recertification. The remaining 18.2% of 2017 revenue was earned from sources such as Participating Organisation fees paid to gain access to the credential at reduced rates for members, continuing education approved provider fees, advertising sales, job vacancy postings and sales of certificate frames. All revenue is put back into the programme to ensure the validity, credibility and sustainability of the CFRE exam and credential.

The Board of Directors of CFRE International is committed to ensuring a reliable and credible certification programme for all candidates and certificants, ensuring investments in ongoing exam development activities, promotion of CFRE certification and the CFRE credential across the global philanthropic sector and sufficient investment in organisational capacity.

The goal of the certification process is to ensure the continuing competence of each Certified Fund Raising Executive (CFRE) and maintain the professional standards of those engaged in the fundraising profession. Continuing education courses provide one of the primary methods for keeping up with the evolution of professional practice. One of the most frequently asked questions is where certificants and candidates can go to obtain applicable continuing education for their CFRE certification. The following is a list of our 2017 Continuing Education Approved Providers. We thank them for the knowledge and skill they share.

CFRE former chairpersons are reminders of the rich history and significant growth of our organisation. Since our formation, nine chairpersons have led CFRE. The legacies of these devoted individuals are sure to continue long into the future. Thank you for your ongoing support of CFRE and professional fundraising.
