From the Chair

After serving on the Board of CFRE International as Vice Chair for two years, it was an honor to assume the position of Chair in January 2018. It's an incredibly exciting time to be part of this organization. CFRE International's forward momentum has been growing year-over-year as we continue to be the leading source for confidence, ethics, and professionalism in fundraising globally.

I'm proud to say 2018 was extraordinary. It was a banner year in so many ways.

We had the highest number of initial applications, 930 in total, in a single year, which speaks to the growing value and awareness of CFRE.

In October, we launched a refreshed brand that included a new, more vibrant logo. The new logo conveys achievement, growth, and operating from the highest standards of professionalism and ethics. Our new tagline also debuted: Confidence, ethics, and professionalism in fundraising.

The refreshed brand will serve us well as we continue to grow CFRE's profile in more countries and connect with fundraising professionals earlier in their careers.

To better support fundraising professionals on their CFRE journey, we also launched an updated website in 2018, making information easier to find overall while putting our various studying resources front-and-center.

It was also the year we launched our webinar series. Across all 10 webinars we offered, we had more than 1,500 registrations and plenty of positive feedback. The webinars walked attendees through the CFRE process and exam in an easy-to-follow format. Ultimately, the webinars helped grow the confidence of future CFREs so that they can feel prepared to complete their application and sit for the CFRE Exam. Building upon their success, we will continue to offer webinars in future years.

At the end of 2018, there were more than 6,400 CFREs in 25 countries. This is a massive achievement and a testament that the CFRE is a truly global certification promoting standards across the world.

We also saw 2018 as a year of making fantastic connections. We know that there is no better source than current CFREs for learning how becoming a CFRE can impact your career. Our CFRE Ambassador Program kicked off in 2018. Thirty CFRE Ambassadors across four continents were matched with future CFREs and shared their advice about how becoming a CFRE had impacted their career. Our CFRE Ambassadors also spoke at a variety of trainings and conferences to further get the word out about the benefits of becoming a CFRE. Looking ahead, our Ambassadors will continue to be a fantastic resource for future CFREs and we look forward to expanding the number of Ambassadors in the program.

While 2018 was full of new initiatives and exciting steps forward, I know more amazing things are in store for CFRE. Whether you're a current, past, or future CFRE, I thank you for your commitment to fundraising professionalism and ethics. Let's move ahead and continue serving our donors, beneficiaries, communities, and causes.

All the best,

Accreditation

In July 2017, the American National Standards Institute accredited the Certified Fund Raising Executive (CFRE) certification under the ANSI/ISO/IEC 17024 standard for personnel certification programs. This made the CFRE® credential the world's only accredited certification for philanthropic fundraising professionals.

ANSI accreditation is the hallmark of a rigorous, high-quality certification program. ANSI accreditation enhances the stature of the CFRE credential because it is recognized internationally for ensuring the consistency and integrity of certification bodies and credentials.

The ISO in ANSI/ISO/IEC stands for International Organization for Standardization, a worldwide federation of national standards bodies from 145 countries.

Accreditation by ANSI means that the CFRE credential's global significance is recognized by other worldwide accrediting bodies with which ANSI has established multilateral recognition agreements, including members of the Pacific Accreditation Cooperation.

Accreditation of the CFRE program under ANSI/ISO/IEC 17024 confers independent, widely respected international validation of both the CFRE program and credential, verifying the competence, credibility, and ethical commitment of an increasingly mobile and global workforce of CFRE-certified fundraising professionals.

“Working in a profession that makes an impact on people’s lives, you always want the most competent people to be part of the team that achieves your goals. Having a CFRE as part of the team ensures best practices, demonstrated competency, and ethics guide your fundraising efforts.”

Validity Tables

During 2018, a total of 930 new candidates applied to the CFRE program and 927 examinations were administered at numerous computer-based testing (CBT) locations worldwide. A total of 550 individuals were granted initial certification as a Certified Fund Raising Executive (CFRE), bringing the total number of current CFRE certificants to 6,789 during the year.

The 2018 exam form reflected a Test Content Outline based on the international Job Analysis Survey conducted in 2014/2015 in ten countries—Australia, Brazil, Canada, Germany, India, Japan, New Zealand, South Africa, the United Kingdom (UK), and the United States (U.S.). The following statistics are for the 2018 form of the CFRE exam.

Data note: There was only one CFRE Global Exam form administered to candidates for CFRE certification in 2018.

2018 Exam Statistics	Global form 0118103
Total scored items on exam	175
Total scaled score (possible range)	200 – 800
Passing scaled score	500
Mean scaled score (of all candidates)	509.95
Range of scores	200 – 728
Reliability coefficient	.86
Standard error of measurement	5.51

“My CFRE is proof of my commitment to the fundraising profession, no matter if I am working in London, Beijing, or Hong Kong.”

– Vincent Kin Ming Law, MSc, CFRE, MInstF(Dip)
Hong Kong, China

CFRE International assesses the knowledge, skills, and competencies of the fundraising profession as identified in a rigorous international Job Analysis study. This research informs the Test Content Outline, on which the exam is based.

Best practice in the certification profession requires that a new Job Analysis be performed every five to seven years. In 2014/2015, CFRE completed its most recent Job Analysis study, which was reflected in the 2018 exam form.

CFRE uses a cadre of globally diverse, trained, and currently certified fundraising professionals to help develop, vet, and approve the CFRE examination. In addition, the passing standard is set by a panel of fundraising professionals.

Every draft test question must be linked to a topic area found on the Test Content Outline and referenced to at least one source on the CFRE Resource Reading List before it will be reviewed.

In 2018 CFRE International continued to experience a healthy recertification rate above the industry average rate for voluntary certification programs.

Explanation of Terms

Total Scored Items on the Exam: The 2018 CFRE exam consisted of 200 questions; of the 200 questions, 175 were scored and 25 were pre-test questions that were being evaluated for possible inclusion on the exam at a later date. Information about how candidates perform on pre-test questions is collected without affecting the candidate's score.

Scaled Score: Raw number-correct scores for the CFRE exam are converted to scaled scores with a consistent pass mark (i.e., 500) for ease of interpretation and comparability across test windows. This means that the same raw number-correct score could correspond to different scaled scores depending on the difficulty of the exam form. For example, two candidates who took different exam forms and had the same raw score of 70 might have different scaled scores. The candidate who took the easier form would likely have a lower scaled score than the candidate who took the more difficult form even though their raw scores are the same. The scaled scores of the CFRE exam range from 200 to 800. The scaled score 800 in the CFRE exam represents a perfect score (i.e., number-correct score of 175).

Passing Scaled Score: This is the score a candidate must receive in order to pass the CFRE examination. The passing scaled score for the CFRE exam is consistently set to 500. This means that a scaled score is a conversion of different number-correct scores depending on exam difficulties. The number of questions that must be answered correctly is determined by evaluating the overall difficulty level of the exam. The more difficult the exam, the fewer questions a candidate would have to answer correctly in order to be assessed as having mastered the content. CFRE International uses criterion-referenced scoring. That is, the passing standard is determined by a panel of experts during a standard setting workshop applying Modified Angoff Method and is independent of what group of people a candidate tests with. CFRE International does not score its exam on a "curve" and also does not predetermine the number of people it will certify in a given year—performance on the exam is up to the candidate.

Mean Scaled Score: This is the average score of all candidates who took the exam during 2018. The overall mean scaled score for all candidates in 2018 was 509.95. The appropriateness (or consistency) of exam difficulty is understood by looking at the scaled score average.

Range of Scores: The theoretical range for the CFRE exam scaled score (200 – 800) is considered typical for a professional certification program. In 2018 the observed minimum and the maximum scores were 200 and 728, respectively. These outliers did not affect appropriateness and consistency of the exam difficulty as the scaled score averages do not suggest a noticeable difference in overall candidate performance.

Cronbach's α Reliability Coefficient: It indicates the internal consistency of the exam. The theoretical range of coefficient alpha is from 0 to 1, with larger numbers suggesting that similar results would be observed if the exam is given to the same examinee over multiple occasions. Reliability coefficient is generally affected by the test length. For a long exam (i.e., more than 100 scored items) such as the CFRE exam, a reliability of 0.8 is expected. The observed reliability coefficient of the 2018 CFRE exam was 0.86, which was satisfactory and shows a slight change from .88 in 2017.

Explanation of Terms

Standard Error of Measurement: The standard error of measurement yields an estimate of the variability of errors associated with a CFRE test score. A large standard error indicates that a significant amount of error exists in the test score. The small standard error results suggest that the 2018 CFRE exam was a precise measure of baseline knowledge in the field of fundraising at the five-year level.

Content Area Performance: The CFRE examination administered during 2018 was broken down into six major content areas of fundraising: Current and Prospective Donor Research; Securing the Gift; Relationship Building; Volunteer Involvement; Leadership and Management; and Ethics, Accountability, and Professionalism. Candidate performance across those content areas is monitored.

The CFRE candidate pool is involved with a great diversity of fundraising; it is reasonable to expect that not all candidates are masters of every type of fundraising activity. In 2018, candidates scored highest in the domain of Ethics, Accountability, and Professionalism. The lowest performance domain was Leadership and Management. This may reflect a lack of access to available education for fundraising professionals in this domain though overall performance was still at acceptable levels.

Content area	Average % correct
Current and prospective donor research	70.98
Securing the gift	72.31
Relationship building	70.45
Volunteer involvement	76.95
Leadership and management	70.14
Ethics, accountability, and professionalism	80.33
Total (175 items)	73.53

Sustainability

Since its beginning as an independent organization in 2001, CFRE International has become self-sustaining and continues to experience steady increases in the overall number of CFRE certificants worldwide.

In 2018 CFRE International derived 82.1% of its revenue from candidate fees for both initial certification and recertification. The remaining 17.9% of 2018 revenue was earned from sources such as Participating Organization fees paid to gain access to the credential at reduced rates for members, continuing education provider fees, advertising sales, job vacancy postings, and sales of certificate frames. All revenue is put back into the program to ensure the validity, credibility, and sustainability of the CFRE Exam and credential.

The Board of Directors of CFRE International is committed to ensuring a reliable and credible certification program for all candidates and certificants, ensuring investments in ongoing exam development activities, promotion of CFRE certification and the CFRE credential across the global philanthropic sector and sufficient investment in organizational capacity.

“Attaining my CFRE has been a huge professional accomplishment that has enabled me to accelerate my career progression and ground my work in best practices.”

2018 Continuing Education Providers

The goal of the certification process is to ensure the continuing competence of each Certified Fund Raising Executive (CFRE) and maintain the professional standards of those engaged in the fundraising profession. Continuing education courses provide one of the primary methods for keeping up with the evolution of professional practice. One of the most frequently asked questions is where certificants and candidates can go to obtain applicable continuing education for their CFRE certification. The following is a list of our 2018 Continuing Education Approved Providers. We thank them for the knowledge and skill they share.

"Not only did I want to gain my CFRE for my own professional development, but also to demonstrate the professionalism of fundraising to others in our small country. Using the CFRE designation after my name is a good talking point with charity managers, trustees, and people I'm training."

"When I made the decision to become a CFRE, I didn't realize I was making a choice that would change my life forever. I am much more confident in my ability to lead my team and influence decision making with other senior leaders and the board because of the breadth of the material and rigor of the exam."

"I encourage members of my team to become a CFRE because it builds trust with donors and peers. The journey to become a CFRE allows us to hone skills and prove that we are competent members of the profession. We devote ourselves to professional development and to helping be an ethical conduit between donors' intent and important missions."
